I enclose a schedule of information regarding Dutch agents who are the financial responsibility of S.O.E.

A solution worth considering might be the paying over of the total accrued credits to our State opposite number, the S.B.O., which would assume responsibility for settlement with the agents' dependents.

symmetries or the existing I.D.F. organization sufficiently illuminating this point. It is, in my view, apparent that in U.S.A., action was the duty of working on the security of the Nazi organization in the Field would have been trying to prevent an impossible task, if there had not collected together in one place all that was known regarding agents, men and women, agent VIC now here in the future of 1943 he asserted positively (Q.1244) that there was no efficient system of protection in Paris which ensured that however much a route to Paris might be prepared the route messenger was safe. This had to be taken to be serious. It is a record. Is not that on the following day (22.12.43), the agent AGUILAR was also interrogated in London and said that PIGUIN and he, after travelling to Paris, were taken over by the VIC organization and were then connected together by the VIC agent, JUAREZ, to Lyons. The inconsistencies between the statements of VIC and AGUILAR never seem to have been compared and VIC was never troubled with AGUILAR's statement. The extent to which the VIC route has been penetrated ought to have prompted the most urgent examination and the record, if such had existed, of agent and others who had passed over the VIC route ought to have been pursued and attention paid to those individuals. It seems to me that the keeping of complete records properly coded and cross-referenced is the first essential of security in the Field.

As a footnote to the above I would suggest that AGUILAR and PIGUIN, who would in the circumstances never have been allowed to escape by the Germans, ought to be affirmatively cleared of suspicion. The evidence of AGUILAR, I think, makes their position abundantly clear. Indeed they performed a valuable service in escaping and arranging for the facts, or some of them, to be sent to this country from Switzerland in advance of their own arrival here. Although the case is not so strong, everything we have seen in recent months I think confirms the view that PIGUIN was an innocent dupe and would never have been sent here as a conscious German agent whose interrogation in this country might have given away the very elaborate game that was being played.

15th Jan. 1944.

Enclosed is a copy of a German list of prisoners executed at Neuengamme concentration camp on the afternoon of the 8th and morning of the 9th September 1944, which has been forwarded to us from the field.

The only names we have not been able to identify are those marked with an asterisk and I should be most grateful if you would let me know whether any of these were liaison section agents.

Information by a person giving or receiving the information regarding anything he has done or does not do, or for the purpose of any investigation, inquiry, or proceeding, or for any other purpose, shall be admissible in the Public Accused against any criminal defendant. This will always hold in the Federal Courts (§ 142, 1948), unless Congress, through statute, or by a rule of court, otherwise directs. It is important for the defense to make a record of his statement, and for the attorney for the prosecution to make a record of his statement, and for the attorney for the defense to make a record of his statement.

The names and last names of Jews held by Public Record Office Correspondence Officers on file were and continue to be used, and displayed in the Correspondence Department, and the names of Jews corresponding to those appearing under "Names of Jews" in the lists previously held with the Public Record Office Correspondence Officers on file were and continue to be used, and displayed in the Correspondence Department, and as such such names appear much later and continuing until November 1945, no one can yet be certain exactly what list of persons the names will be found in their occupied Nazi Reich. These names and numbers of Jews are not contained within these pages of this document. The names in the list are taken from the ECR.

The three agents marked with a query are doubtful but are believed to be there, though in an emaciated condition which makes recognition from photographs difficult.

As the Russian forces are approaching A-L, if they have not already arrived, it is felt that they should be advised of our interest in these prisoners, possibly through our German and Russian sections, so that we might be informed should any of them be rescued. Also the agents would receive proper treatment immediately and not get into difficulties with the rescuing forces through being unable to explain their position satisfactorily.

Major BETHUNE of "C" also interrogated Capt. MOUROT with regard to C agents who might also be imprisoned at BETHUNE and showed him photographs.

All 24 agents if asked who they knew in London with the exception of however should state the following - Capt. A. J. G. B. C. together before Sept 1944 met some time ago together before Sept 1944, Jack Leving, Frank Brown Major A. J. G. B. C. from A. J. G. B. C.

DITCH CASUALTIES

Reference our telephone conversation of this afternoon, the following slight amendments should be made to the list of agents believed to be in German hands. This list was prepared in your section, shortly after the first interrogation of CHIVE and SPROUT at Bayswater. Such amendments as are included below, are those which have arisen in the light of further interrogations of the agents concerned, and as a result of more mature reflection on their part.

You are probably fully aware of the fact, but just in case it may have slipped your memory, I think it is worth drawing attention to the statements made by both CHIVE and SPROUT to the effect that such visual recognition of agents as they may have been able to make, was entirely carried out in a period of only one week in the Spring of 1943. At the end of this week arrangements for exercising prisoners were refused, and it was no longer possible to see people through the windows of the cells.

The excellent list, as prepared by your section, can stand as it is in all columns, with the exception of those which set out the photos which the Agents recognised. In these columns, the alterations below, should be inserted as the outcome of further interrogations.

Operation	Chive	Sprout
1. Broadbean	doubtful	yes
2. Endive	-	yes
3. Kohlrabi	-	yes
4. Seakale	yes	yes
5. Chicory	yes	doubtful
6. Cress	yes	-
22. Paranip	yes	-
23. Watercress	no	-
26. Turnip	no	-
27. Celery A	no	-
28. Tomato B	no	-

The following additions should also be made:-

31. Cucumber	-	doubtful
32. Pumpkin	doubtful	-
33. Gherkin	"	yes

The matter of Watercress being of some importance, has been carefully gone into, and I think that there is little doubt that CHIVE was mistaken at his first interrogation, and that he has, in fact, never seen this agent.

It is also interesting to note that both agents did not recognise the picture of Hockey, though SPRCOP was in an adjacent cell, and was frequently in conversation with him.

Van Rossem + Krouse op 10:

23 June 42, at Overpeck in Franklin Park, I went into a bottom lot of marshy land himself about 4 acres dark. I am not unknown; Buckwheat up to 2 feet about a month after Van Kessel &
..... the old fields;
abt. 23 up to a hill
of a cliff; Oct. 1 1940. in swamp; and Oct.
about November 21, in mud at Edgewood Park. Other sites: 1. Park 1 to, beginning of a dry watercourse;
2. Medenblick abt. 2 ft. to 4 ft.;
3. - in a kind of moraine
4. - in a dry creek bed

and the like, & it is a good habit to keep the library open to visitors, & to allow them to look over the books. But there is one or two things which ought not to be done.
One is to let people go away with books, & and the other is to let people take books home.

and there was no one who could do anything about it. I am not at all worried about it right now. I am not worried about it at all.
